INSTRUCTION TO LICENSEES

Under the provisions of RCW 66.20.180 a retail licensee has the right and responsibility, before serving, to require persons of questionable age and appearance to prove they are of legal age to purchase liquor.

To obtain the protection afforded by RCW 66.20.210, you must require the person presenting this card of identification to complete the reverse side of this card. You must also complete the certification below.

The card must be officially issued, show the person's correct age, and bear his/her signature and photograph. By law the only acceptable cards of identification are: 1. Driver's License or Instruction Permit issued by any State or Province of Canada. 2. United States Armed Forces ID Card, active duty, reserve, retired and dependants. 3. Merchant Marine ID Card issued by the United States Coast Guard. 4. Washington State Department of Licensing Identification Card or Identification Card issued by any State or Province of Canada. 5. Official Passport issued by any Nation. An expired Washington State Driver's License together with valid temporary Washington State Driver's License is considered an acceptable Washington driver's license. 6. Washington State qualified Tribal Enrollment Card.
